To Whom This May Concern,

It is my pleasure to recommend Evanthia Sablan as an instructor in the areas of Graphic and Advertising Design.

Evanthia has worked on our campus, the Art Institute of California – Los Angeles as a part-time instructor since January of 2013. She has also taught at our Hollywood campus and with the Art Institute online division for several years. During that time she has taught courses on all levels of graphic design including corporate identity, package and pre-production design, advanced graphic design and senior project.

Student work from the courses Evanthia has taught is excellent. Evanthia has designed and organized lesson plans that have motivated students to produce their best work. The work has met and gone beyond the expectations of the course syllabi. She has been particularly effective in helping students develop strong portfolio and promotional websites. She is a valued instructor in the design program. In addition to her classroom responsibilities, Evanthia has regularly supported students by participating in Portfolio Shows, Design Events and Graduation.

Evanthia is also a very talented graphic and promotion designer for the entertainment industry. She has worked with very high profile clients and her resume shows an impressive list of celebrity projects. She maintains a professional website and has an extremely strong work ethic, which she is able to communicate to students. Evanthia remains current on technology and its application in the classroom.

Please feel free to contact me if I can answer any questions regarding Evanthia Sablan's qualifications or skills.

Sincerely,

Gary LaVasser

Sr. Director, New Release Planning
EMI Music

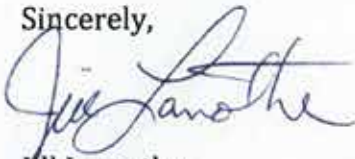

To Whom It May Concern:

I began working with Evanthia in 2008. She was our lead designer for all Capitol Latin Catalog titles. She also handled all frontline conversions. She has worked on many of our top selling catalog titles including Selena and Juan Luis Guerra.

Evanthia has the capability to develop a concept, run with the design, make a million changes per the label and remain on deadline. We have worked on over 150 releases together. We never missed a release date because of Evanthia's dedication to the projects. And, a lot of patience!

I highly recommend Evanthia. She would be a great asset to any Creative team.

Sincerely,

Jill Lamothe

This letter serves as my personal recommendation for art designer, Evanthia Milara.

Evanthia and I have worked together for over six years. In the last two years, she has collaborated with me on both large and small projects for EMI Music and each and every time she has successfully delivered great designs on budget and on time.

It is easy to work with someone whose judgment you trust without question and know that they have the experience to do it right the first time.

I give my sincere recommendation to Evanthia who is a pleasure to work with.

Sincerely,

Greta Nodar
Director of Product Development
EMI Music

To whom it may concern,

I have had the pleasure of working with Evanthia Milara for nearly two years. During that time, I found her to be very professional, creative and a joy to be around. Evanthia frequently took on the most challenging projects and handled the deadline pressure with élan. Additionally, her designs, whether small or large, were varied, insightful and creative. Her work exhibits great attention to detail and flexibility, even when faced with budget restrictions.

I give Evanthia my most wholehearted recommendation. She would be a terrific addition to any creative team.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been my professional and personal pleasure to work with Evanthia Milara-Sablan for the past 9 ½ years. In that time Evanthia has brought her considerable skills to our department, thereby elevating not only the quality of the work that we produce, but also acting as a catalyst for positive changes in our production methods.

Always a tireless champion of higher graphic standards, Evanthia has been a great encouragement to her associates. She is valued for her acutely critical eye and thoughtful, constructive input. Her training and strong sense of commercial design as well as her deep interest in art make her an invaluable source for reference and inspiration. The thoroughness and creativity that classify her work is matched only by her adherence to sensitive deadlines. She is repeatedly chosen from among a dozen of our graphic artists for our most high-profile, demanding design work.

Evanthia has always been an advocate for growth and positive change as the needs and demands of our business have shifted and evolved. Her ability to focus simultaneously on several diverse projects has resulted in her taking a leadership role on countless occasions. Her dependability as an individual designer is matched by her support and training of other designers.

Her professionalism, positive attitude and creative approach have made her an indispensable member of our team for many years.

I give Evanthia my unreserved recommendation.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Athens, May 14, 1993

Ms EVI MILARA has been employed by our Agency as ART DIRECTOR, from September '92 up until May '93.

On certain occasions she positively surpassed her duties, as was the case with FOUDOUNIA Snacks of PEPSICO FOODS Int'l, where she acted as CO-CREATIVE DIRECTOR and as PRODUCING DIRECTOR.

Our general impression is that of a capable and talented person - qualities that she expresses with professionalism, consistency and flexibility. Furthermore, her pleasant personality allows her to maintain an exceptional level of smooth communication with her professional environment.
